

Back to School Green is Cool

Kayal Gonzalez and Lilah Lynch Pose with their going green coloring book and frisbee.

On Sunday, September 18, 2011 the North Hudson Sewerage Authority along with the Hoboken Housing Authority, Quality of Life Coalition, Hudson County Improvement Authority and Hudson County Freeholder Anthony Romano hosted the “Back to School Green is Cool” event at Mama Johnson Baseball field in Hoboken. Children were treated to music, rides, refreshments, and back to school giveaways along with receiving information about how to go green in the community.

North Hudson Sewerage Authority Commissioner – Anthony Soares; Commissioner and Treasurer Frank Raia; Soraya Seffold; Illana Williams; Ch2M Hill Project Safety Team Leader, Steve Hudock

Children gather and proudly wear their going green T-shirts.